

ETCP Recognized Trainer Practice Examination Licensing Agreement

ETCP Practice Examination materials are proprietary and confidential materials of ESTA. Any disclosure of the contents of any ETCP Practice Examination is strictly prohibited, unless permission has been granted by ETCP.

ETCP grants ETCP Recognized Trainers a license to offer a preview of the practice examinations in their training. You may purchase practice examinations online at www.esta.org/etcppracticeexams for $35 each which allows you 30 days of unlimited use. You agree to provide ETCP with a licensing fee of $15 per student. You may subtract the $35 purchase fee from the total of the per-student licensing fee each time you purchase a new exam.

Please adhere to the following guidelines concerning the ETCP Practice Examinations:

- I agree to maintain the confidentiality of all practice examination materials and not to reproduce, print, distribute, or post on the internet any portion of the examination materials.
- I will only utilize projection or computer display for my students to view the practice examinations.
- I will utilize no more than twenty questions from each examination.
- I will refrain from advertising the use of the ETCP Practice Examination questions in my training materials.
- I will use the practice examination questions for only a portion of my training, and will not build a course entirely around the ETCP Practice Examination, as this may be construed as “teaching to the test.”
